Neal and Coleen Walters come to us from Greencastle, PA. Singing and playing since the '60's, their music has been influenced by many different artists and styles of music. Their current repertoire includes songs from the 1700's through Gordon Lightfoot, Doc Watson, the Carter Family, '40's standards and even a couple of Beatles songs. Autoharp, dulcimer and banjo are Neal's instruments of choice and Coleen adds bass to the mix. You'll hear lots of harmony singing as well as some instrumentals. Both perform with the group, Doofus. Neal was a member of the Mill Run Dulcimer Band for over 20 years and edited the Music Hound Folk: the Essential Album Guide to Folk Music.

In addition to their concert appearances, Neal has taught dulcimer, autoharp, banjo and guitar for nearly thirty years in and around Washington, DC and at camps and festivals like Boone, Augusta, Kentucky Music Week, Winterfest, Summerfest, Black Swamp, Autumn Hills, Autumn Acoustics, Cranberry, String-A-Long, Housatonic, Dulcimer Daze, Swannanoa and Old Songs.

An evening spent with them in concert will take you to lots of different places. Neal and Coleen have two duet albums, Snowbirds and My Pathway Leads to Pennsylvania.
